(i) Demonstration of Jatropha Cultivation for Biodiesel Production

Jatropha is an important plant for biodiesel production. Bioved Research Institute of Agriculture, Technology and Sciences (BRIATS) has developed a new germ plasm of Jatropha curcas variety for maximum production of its seed and oil at its centre Bioved Krishi Prodyogiki Gram, Sringvepur, Allahabad. This plant is grown at large scale for demonstration and further propagation through seed and vegetative methods. The process of oil extraction through the seed of Jatropha is being standardized in a proper and systematic manner for obtaining maximum profit from the cultivation of Jatropha. Many waste and barren lands in and around Allahabad district are being utilized for its cultivation. Bio-fencing of Jatropha plants are very helpful for protection of crops from Neel Gaay

(ii) Demonstration of Mushroom Cultivation

BRIATS has standardized the process of button mushroom for promotion of scientific method of mushroom cultivation in the existing climatic situations of different districts of U.P. by preparing compost bag with the help of available raw materials of wheat straw and rice bran and other available materials. It has also standardized the process of mushroom cultivation. Developed technologies on this aspect are being demonstrated at BKPG, Moharab, Sringerpur Centre of BRIATS for the adoption of interested farmers and vegetable growers.

(iii) Demonstration of Bee-keeping and Post-harvest Technology for Honey processing

BRIATS has standardized the scientific method of honey bee keeping and developed processing plants of produced honey for commercial use. For this purpose 150 bee keeping boxes are prepared and distributed at 50 different places nearby Allahabad District for demonstration and production of honey, keeping in view the suitable environment for honey production.
